NOMINATING AND CORPORATE GOVERNANCE COMMITTEE CHARTER

1. MEMBERSHIP

- 1.1 The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee (the “Committee”) shall consist of not less than three members of the Board of Directors of the Company (the “Board”). The members of the Committee shall be appointed by a majority vote of the Board. Committee members may be removed by the full Board at any time with or without cause.
- 1.2 Each member of the Committee shall be “independent” as required by the New York Stock Exchange (“NYSE”) listing standards and any other legal requirements as shall from time to time be in effect.
- 1.3 The Chairperson of the Committee (the “Chairperson”) shall be elected by a majority vote of the Board.

2. PURPOSE

- 2.1 The primary function of the Committee is to carry out the responsibilities delegated by the Board relating to the Company’s governance matters, including: (i) making recommendations for nominations for election of directors and officers and Board structure; (ii) developing and maintaining the Company’s Corporate Governance Principles, which provide a framework for the Board’s responsibilities (the “Corporate Governance Principles”); and (iii) providing oversight of the Company’s Environmental, Social and Governance (“ESG”) strategy, risk management and compliance.

3. MEETINGS

- 3.1 The Committee shall meet at such times in person, online or telephonically as it determines to be necessary or appropriate, but not less than once a year, and the Committee Chairperson shall report to the Board at the next meeting of the Board following each such Committee meeting, or as reasonably practicable.
- 3.2 A majority of the members of the Committee shall constitute a quorum. The act of a majority of the members present at the meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Committee. If only two members constitute a quorum, the unanimous vote of the two members shall constitute the act of the Committee. The Committee shall be authorized to take action by unanimous written consent, as permitted by applicable law.

- 3.3 The Committee may form subcommittees and delegate authority to them as it deems appropriate.
- 3.4 Any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the Committee may be taken without a meeting if, prior or subsequent to the action, a consent or consents thereto by all members of the Committee is filed with the Secretary of the Company.
- 3.5 The Committee may adopt such additional rules and procedures for the conduct of its affairs as it deems necessary or appropriate if not inconsistent with this Charter and the Company's By-Laws.

4. RESPONSIBILITIES

4.1 Nominating. The Committee shall:

- 4.1.1 Determine qualifications, qualities, skill and other expertise required to be a director and to develop and recommend to the Board for its approval, criteria to be considered in selecting nominees for the election of directors in accordance with the Corporate Governance Principles (the "Director Criteria"). Such criteria shall include independence, professional experience, availability to devote the necessary time to serve on the Board, diversity, expertise, wisdom, integrity, business acumen, and such other factors as the Committee deems appropriate in the context of the needs of the Board so as to enhance the Board's ability to manage and direct the affairs and business of the Company.
- 4.1.2 Identify and screen individuals qualified to become members of the Board, consistent with the Director Criteria.
- 4.1.3 Review timely nominations for election of directors received from shareholders, and ensure that such shareholders are advised of any final action taken by the Board with respect thereto, in accordance with the procedures set forth in the Company's Corporate Governance Principles.
